NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

Superintendent's Report
For the Year – 2004

The Lord has blessed the North Carolina Conference richly. 2004 proved to be a year of great advance. Our theme was "Them". The records will show that there was increase in the number of churches, the number of membership, the number of attendance, and the number of ministers. Many souls were added to the Kingdom. Many individuals were brought into relationship with the King. Our color is even changing. We were able to reach "them". Praise the Lord!

Before I discuss the details of 2004 allow me to speak to the direction of the Lord now. The Lord continues to speak and direct. In 2005 our theme is "Yes, Lord! The Year of Miracles!" We are following His direction. The Conference Board, many of the Department heads, and many pastors are reading the John Maxwell Study Bible. We cannot say "Yes, Lord!" until we hear His voice.

He has promised to bless with miracles in the midst of adversity. He has promised to be a "God river" flowing in our midst. This river of God will bring refreshing, renewal, revival, and much fruit. There will be growth and water for the furrows and ridges. Our churches will be greatly enriched.

This year the year will be crowned with His goodness. Our paths will drip with abundance. The little hills will rejoice on every side. The pastures (churches) will be clothed with flocks. The valleys will be covered with grain. There will be singing and shouting because of joy.

These exciting words are found in Psalm 65. They are the promises of God to us as we seek Him. As we say "Yes, Lord!" in obedience, so will the God river flow. We must pray! We must approach Him! As we seek Him and open our hearts and churches to His presence, so He will flow and bless.

There are many challenges. Our communities are full of those lost without Christ. Churches need to be planted. Churches need to be revitalized. New ministers need to be trained. Older saints and the youth must work together in harmony. The Conference income must increase even in the midst of budget cuts. (We must move our churches to a Biblical tithe). More income is needed for more staff and to increase our retirement to the ever increasing number of retired ministers. Our Hispanic churches must be trained as to structure. Our new buildings must be finished and paid for. Our campus enlargement and renovations must be completed – restrooms, behind the Octagon, new recreational field, new RV court, etc. A new guest house must be built. This will be done primarily from the sell of the donated Sudie Butler land in Sampson County. It will be named in honor of Miss Butler. It will sit at the location of the Thurman house. Yes, there is much to do, but He has promised to flow into us with His needed blessings.

Let us move ahead into this year with much excitement. We have a great foundation. Let us build on our foundation and continue the mission.

Now for a few moments let us return to a review of 2004.

It has been my pleasure to serve the North Carolina Conference as Superintendent. It has been a very busy year but very rewarding. I have been faithful to my calling and the duties assigned to me. It has been a joy to work with the Conference Board and the personnel at the office. They all have been a source of encouragement and strength. I say to each of them Well Done!

I have represented the Conference on the General Executive Board and General Board of Administration of the denomination. To work with Bishop James Leggett and his staff is to be encouraged and motivated in the Lord. I have represented the Conference on the Falcon Children's Home Board and Board of Emmanuel College. In addition I have served on the Board of Trustees of Holmes Bible College and represented the Conference to churches, denominations, and to the community.

I thank the Lord for Betty and my family. Betty has traveled with me for many a mile. She has served the Conference well as Archives Director and Minister's Wives Fellowship. In the last year a new Archives Center has been built. It will be dedicated to Reverend and Mrs. J. Doner Lee this summer. Betty is moving faithfully and with progress to make it functional. She is a woman of faith, integrity, and great love for all the preacher's wives. I am blessed!

The office executives have worked many long hours this year. Reverend Roland Harrell has supervised the destruction of the Thurman House, the establishing of the Archives Center, and the building of the new J.A. Culbreth Auditorium. In addition he has managed well the loan fund and the regular finances of the Conference. Well Done, Roland!

Reverend Danny Nelson has led the Evangelism and World Missions departments well. New churches have been opened. A new church planting thrust has been developed (Mothering Churches). A Model Church revitalization plan was implemented. The World Missions department continues to expand with higher giving and new emphasis. The Conference continues to lead the denomination in World Missions giving. Brother Nelson also completed his Master of Ministry degree from South Western Christian University. Well Done, Danny!

Reverend Charles Boyd continues to work effectively in the twenty-seven ministries in Church Education. He has served this Conference well. He is known across the church as a man who loves His Lord, the church, and youth. He is ever creative and enthusiastic. He is now working on a new Royal Ranger Camp. Last year he successfully established a new recreation field for the youth camp. He will complete his Master of Ministry degree this May. Well Done, Charles!

Reverend Luis Avila joined the office executives in June. He hit the ground running. He has proven to be an excellent supervisor for the Hispanic churches and ministers. Several churches have started and more are expected. We now have 36 and are moving quickly to 50. He has continued the training program for Hispanic ministers and has also brought the national INE training to North Carolina. He and his leadership team, Fernando Angulo, Abraham Rodriquez, Francisco Concepcion, and Jose Serrano have led the Hispanic churches well. Well Done, Luis!

In addition to the executives the Lord has given the Conference office some excellent and very special staff people. These have served well – Dolores Reynolds, Rose Nelson, Kay Glover, Joyce Swinson, Brook Duchene, Gina Page, Mayra Bertrand, Tommy Vaughan, and Nicole Turransky. Rose left us in November. She had served faithfully and diligently for fourteen years. Joyce left us the first of April. She had served well for six plus years. We will miss these two. The Lord has supplied some excellent new workers. Gina Page has returned to serve as my secretary. Nicole has just begun as receptionist and Evangelism/World Missions secretary. Mayra Bertrand came on board in January as Hispanic Secretary. These new ladies have begun well. They are excellent additions. Before the year is out we hope to hire another worker to assist Tommy. The work demands it. Well Done, staff!

Allow me to mention with much appreciation the other various Conference Department and Ministry Heads. These are:
Jimmy Whitfield, Assistant Superintendent – School of Ministry
Wiley Clark – Retired Ministers
Patsy Deese – Women's Ministries
Ronnie Basden – Men's Ministries
Lydia Figueroa – WIN Prayer Network
Bobby Williams – DRUSA
Bobby McNeese – Girl's Ministries
Andre Davenport – Royal Rangers
These have worked many long hours and served the Conference and Lord well. I deeply appreciate their heart and love for God and their work. Well Done! I would to God each of these could be full time.

Look now and review some of the Conference stats for 2004.

APPRECIATION COMMITTEE REPORT
NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
MAY 29, 2004

In "The Message", Eugene Peterson paraphrases Daniel 12:3 as follows: "Men and women, who have lived wisely and well, will shine brilliantly like the cloudless, star-strewn night skies. And those who put others on the right path to life will glow like stars forever."

Society has chosen to call those persons who are popular performers in the arts, Stars. Some of these persons have their names inscribed along with a star in a special sidewalk in Hollywood California.

But the real Stars, the real heroes, are those whom God calls Stars. They are men and women who have accepted the call of God to dedicate their lives to the business of winning souls to Jesus Christ. To "put others on the right path to life." "To turn many to righteousness". And God says He has already made an eternal declaration that will be honored time without end, that preachers of righteousness "will shine like the brightness of the firmament....as the stars forever and ever".

Today we will celebrate and honor some of God's Stars. People who have tirelessly labored to expand the Kingdom of God by winning souls to Jesus Christ. By Evangelizing and Pastoring in the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

MEMOIRS REPORT
MAY 29, 2004

By: Assistant Superintendent Jimmy Whitfield

Today we remember nine of our faithful ministry families as we memorialize their loved one who was also a member of our conference family.

We pause here to say what the Master has already said to them there…
"Well done, good job, you did what I put you on earth to do. You fulfilled your purpose, finished your course. Welcome now into the joys of your Lord"

KENNETH WAYNE CLARK
August 5, 1954 – December 29, 2003

Kenneth Wayne Clark was born in Wilson, North Carolina, to Vernon and Reatha Clark, who were then serving as pastors of the Shiloh Church in the North Carolina Conference. As most "PKs," Kenneth would be required to move around once in a while when his parents would accept the challenge of another pastorate. This was not all bad for this young, outgoing fellow, because he loved people and was delighted to make new acquaintances and develop new friendships. His parents were key people in ministering to hundreds during the camp meetings, youth camps, and other special occasions at the conference grounds in Falcon. They were in charge of the kitchen and feeding people was one of their favorite things to do.

Kenneth was blessed with a brilliant mind and always did exceptionally well at all levels of his educational pursuits. Following his high school days, he graduated from Emmanuel College, where he made many new friends who have been faithful comrades all through his life.

Kenneth was saved when he was very young. Almost twenty years from the time of his birth, he felt the Lord's calling upon his life and joined the North Carolina Conference. Two years later he was ordained. Due to physical problems Kenneth was hindered from accepting certain opportunities, as some of his fellow ministers did, but he gloried in the accomplishments of his friends. He knew who he was and he knew that God would do right by him, so he continued trusting in Him.

Kenneth accepted pastoral assignments in several churches. Vicks Chapel, Scotland Neck, Micro, Abbottsburg and Wade's Point. He also pastored one church in Alabama. At every church he gave his heart in ministry and God blessed.

LAURA LYNETTE WINBOURNE MOSLEY

August 23, 1928 – September 12, 2003

Rev. Lynette Mosley heard a call early Friday morning, September 12, to join her Master. She did. She had received earlier calls. One was to be saved. "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believeth thou this?" (John 25:26). She believed and was saved. Hence, when she left us on that morning, she went into His presence. She was saved in 1947 at the Vaughan's Chapel Church.

She heard another call and joined the NC Conference in 1957. In a day when women ministers and pastors were not readily accepted, she labored faithfully. She had heard Him speak. "Therefore, my beloved, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, for as much as you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord" (I Cor. 15.58). "Her meat was to do the will of Him that sent her and to accomplish His work" (John 4:34).

She served seven years as an evangelist and twenty-two years as a pastor. She pastored eight churches. Black Creek, New Hope, Fremont, Vicks Chapel, Thompson Chapel, Spring Hope, Sims, and Riverside. She had a radio broadcast for several years.

Lynette was a lady who was a faithful wife, mother and preacher. For 56 years she was married to Robert T. Mosley, affectionately known as "Brother T". She is survived by her husband, a daughter – Faye Bland and a son, Phil Mosley.

The celebration service was conducted, Sunday, September 14, 2003, 3:00 P.M. at Joyner Funeral Home in Wilson, NC Burial followed at Evergreen Memorial Gardens. Those speaking at the service were Superintendent Chris Thompson, Jimmy Whitfield, T. E. Long and Pastor Angel Padilla. Rev. Wiley Clark, Retired Ministers' director, presented a bronze medallion to her family on behalf of the denomination at the graveside. It was a glorious service.

REV. LESTER C. ORMOND
September 23, 1915 – March 8, 2004

Brother Ormond was a fiery preacher. He enjoyed preaching. He enjoyed church and was faithful until his health prevented his attendance. He was first saved in 1925 as a ten-year old boy. He was saved again in 1949. He said "it took that time." He received Mission Worker's License in 1954. He was licensed to preach and joined the North Carolina Conference in 1956. He pastored the following churches:

Deaver's Chapel	1956 – 1957
Sneads Ferry	1957 – 1959

He also served as supply pastor for the Alliance, Belhaven, and Verona churches. Brother Ormond was superannuated in 1980.

His wife, Virginia and eight of their nine children survived Rev. Ormond. He did love good gospel singing and preaching. Three of his children: Amy, Dale and Gary traveled for years as the Singing Ormonds. Tapes of their ministry in song were played at his funeral.

May the Lord bless Brother Ormond's memory as a positive influence for the Kingdom.

MRS. ATHLENE SUTTON THIGPEN was the widow of Rev. James D. Thigpen. Both she and her husband were converted in the Thunder Swamp Pentecostal Holiness Church near Mount Olive, North Carolina. Her husband joined the conference in 1964 and she served faithfully by his side during their pastorates at Deavers Chapel, Jones Grove, Genoa, Verona, Albritton and Grifton. Mrs. Athlene attended the Kinston First Church with her son Harold and his wife and family at the time of her death.

MRS. ISABELLE (SEUIS) WHITE was the wife of Rev. Seuis who has been deceased over 25 years. She later married Mr. White. We were unable to secured a lot of information on Mrs. White but her eighty-five (85) year old brother spoke highly of her and Rev. Seuis. We thank God for her labors of love she rendered by the side of her minister companion.

Presiding officer prayed after a moment of silence.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2004 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixtieth Annual Convention on Saturday, June 5, 2004 at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "Rekindle the Fire.

Registration began at 8:30 a.m. in the Training Center with Mrs. Marjorie Teachey as Registrar, assisted by the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors. The Peniel Women's Ministries, directed by Melissa Johnson, hosted refreshments during registration. There were ten local WM groups and other Conference Ministries who had "Show and Sell" displays in the cafeteria.

Music prelude began at 9:20 a.m. by Donna Gaddis, Pianist.

NCWM Assistant Director, Rev. Janice Marshburn, gave the welcome and invocation. In keeping with the theme, Rev. Marshburn reminded us how Moses turned aside for the fire. She then prayed that the fire of God would be rekindled in each of our hearts that we would declare victory in the name of Jesus!

The Spirit of God moved as NCWM Board Member, Terry Boyette, led us in songs of worship, including, "I Was Glad When They Said Unto Me", "There's a Feeling In The Air", "How Great Thou Art", "Lord, We Need a Fresh Anointing" and "There Is None Like You".

North Carolina Conference Superintendent, Rev. D. Chris Thompson, brought greetings from all the churches both Anglo and Hispanic. He gave us an update of growth and improvements in the conference. He also reported that we now have a full-time Conference Hispanic Coordinator and that the conference is making great progress on building plans for the new Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle.

NCWM Director, Mrs. Patsy Deese, responded in appreciation to Superintendent Thompson and to all the women of the North Carolina Conference for all their hard work and support.

Mrs. Marjorie Teachey addressed the convention on behalf of Benevolence. She reported that in 2003, the North Carolina Conference gave $192,316.29 in cash and commodities to Falcon Children's Home. Gifts to ATAM (Alternative to Abortion) amounted to $4,625.29. Marjorie expressed her appreciation for the generosity of the women of this conference. Rev. T. E. Long, Superintendent of Falcon Children's Home, expressed his appreciation for all that has been done. He also reported that the North Carolina Conference furnishes about forty percent of the FCH financial budget. Rev. Long shared with the group that the Children's Home is in desperate need for house parents. He also reported that their ministry is about to expand to help children with severe problems. On a personal note, he expressed appreciation to everyone for their prayers and cards to Mrs. Long. (Sylvia is presently undergoing treatment for cancer.)

Cathy Ward and Cathy Arthur, co-directors of the annual Couples Retreat, shared information about the upcoming 2004 Couples Retreat that will be held in Greensboro, NC this fall.

As part of her portfolio, Mrs. Lois Trueblood gave a personal testimony about how Emmanuel College has influenced her life. Dr. Waters, President of Holmes Bible College, send news that the college is about to relocate to their new facilities.

Rylan Jones, Feast of Ingathering Scholarship recipient, gave a personal testimony of how the "fire of God" in the lives of others has affected his life. Other scholarship recipients were: Melissa Dunning, Victoria Kesling, Lindsey Henderson, Roxanne Thompson, Danielle Harris and Leslie Harris.

Mary Clark and Media Lee represented the Girl's Ministries team. They encouraged all churches to be involved in Girl's Ministries. NCWM Director, Mrs. Patsy Deese, was presented a T-shirt from the Girl's Ministries Retreat held on May 15th this year.

Happy Hearts Coordinator, Rev. Blanche Pollard informed us about the exciting things that Happy Hearts are involved in, which includes meeting twice a year for fun, food, fellowship and making Christmas stockings for New York and Pennsylvania. Happy Hearts will be traveling on an exciting trip to Pittsburgh this year to deliver stockings.

Mrs. Terry Bouette gave her portfolio report on Missions. She reported that the North Carolina Women's Ministries gave $14,327.39 to Christmas Missions in 2003. She also encouraged everyone to work really hard for the "GO" Offering. She introduced quarter bottles as a tool to help save for this project.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

As part of her portfolio on Sharing Sisters and Intercession, Rev. Janice Marshburn reported that the new Sharing Sister assignments would soon be complete. On Prayer and Intercession, Janice reminded us "Prayer moves the hand of God and prayer rekindles the fire of God".

Director Deese recognized all former Conference Presidents/Directors with a token of appreciation. Those present were: Mrs. Jean Williams, Mrs. Dollie Davenport, Mrs. Sue Parker, Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson and Mrs. Linda M. Thomas.

Director Deese presented gifts of appreciation to Rev. Blanche Pollard and Mrs. Margaret Potter. Happy Hearts Coordinators, Mrs. Cathy Ward and Mrs. Cathy Arthur, Couples Retreat Directors, NCWM District Directors, Mrs. Dollie Davenport, Past Presidents/Director's Club, Girl's Ministries Leadership Team, NCWM Historian, Mrs. Dorothy Boyette and NCWM Board Members, Janice Marshburn, Marjorie Teachey, Terry Boyette and Lois Trueblood.

NCWM Director Deese gave her, State of North Carolina Women's Ministries Report. She stated that through Women's Ministries, many doors of opportunity have been opened for her. She is very grateful to God for all that He has done. She is also especially thankful to NC Conference Superintendent, Rev. Chris Thompson; NC Conference Board Members and staff; her local church, Maranatha and her Pastor, Rev. Richard Robinson. A big expression of appreciation was extended to her husband, "Mr. Henry", who is a big help at home, but "loves to use Clorox".

Director Deese presented plaques and bars to the local Women's Ministries groups earning awards for 2003. A special congratulation was given to Bizzell Grove, Greenville First and Moore's Chapel for a score of 100 on their evaluations for seventeen consecutive years.

Former NCWM Director and current General WM Assistant Director, Mrs. Linda M. Thomas gave the Memoirs Report. A bell sounded when each name was read. May God bless the memory of these dear ladies.

After the closing prayer of the Memoirs Report, Assistant Director Janice Marshburn led the congregation in the WM song.

Director Deese introduced our guest speaker for this Convention, Rev. Brenda Grasty, Cornerstone Conference Director. Mrs. Grasty blessed our hearts as she preached about the "fire of God'. After reading I Peter 1:3 as her text, Mrs. Grasty declared that it is a "personal choice" to be a flaming fire and the "fire" falls when we wholly give ourselves to God! She spoke about survival, success, and significance, stages of a Christian life. She reminded us that God has called us to greatness and to fruitfulness. She caused us to laugh as she presented deep truth in such a personal way. She challenged us to not only let the Spirit be on us and in us, but to let Him flow through us as well.

Special recognition and thanks was extended by Director Deese to the following: Mr. Bud Faircloth, sound operator, Mrs. Rose Nelson, Power Point presentation and Mrs. Donna Gaddis for providing the music.

Director Deese again expressed her appreciation to all the women for their continued support and prayers for Women's Ministries and in the Kingdom of God. She gave a special "thanks" to the faithful NCWM prayer partners.

Director Deese asked for suggestions from the women as to what Women's Ministries could do for the new Culbreth Tabernacle. She requested that these suggestions be written on the back of the evaluation sheets. An offering of $597.15 was received to purchase a brick for the Brick Memorial Pavers in honor of North Carolina Women's Ministries.

The Sixtieth NCWM Convention closed with the following benediction:

Benediction
Send us forth, in every good work, to do Thy will, O Lord,
And keep us, whose minds are stayed on thee, in perfect peace.
Amen

The Shiloh Women's Ministries of Wilson, NC in loving memory of Mamie Lemmons and Iris Francis, provided the beautiful floral arrangement.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marjorie Teachey, NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
2003-2004 REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

"Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade---kept in heaven for you, who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time." (1 Peter 1:3-5)

Our WM Emphasis for 2002-2003 has been "Reaching People...Every Life Impacting Another". As I read these scriptures from I Peter, they struck a cord in my heart. Peter says God is committed to helping us fully realize that hope. God promises us a secure hope for our personal and eternal walk with Him. It is only as we fix our anchor in eternity that we find stability for life in these stress-filled days before our Lord's return. Jesus is coming! He will come back for His own, and we will see Him face to face. And until that time, the Son of God lives within us and has promised to walk with us and never forsake us. Until the Lord's return, we need to continue to be about the Father's business. There are still many to be reached for the Lord.

In reviewing the work of North Carolina Women's Ministries during last year, I know that you have been very busy. Many lives have been touched and changed because of your generous hearts of love and compassion.

I am honored to serve as your Conference WM Director. Through this avenue of service, God has opened wonderful doors of opportunity for me. Since our convention last year, I have traveled approximately 8772 miles across the North Carolina Conference and shared the vision, which the Lord has placed, on my heart for NCWM. You have allowed me to be a part of your W. M. Day Observances, Sharing Sister programs and your local meetings. I have held workshops and training sessions, planned and executed a Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training and participated in district rallies.

You have ministered to others through your gifts in reaching around the work in support of our missions programs. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $81,485.47. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern College, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $14,777.89 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other missions' projects in the amount of $7,569.51.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $192,316.44 in cash and commodities from North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $4,625.29 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM).

Girls Ministries continues to grow under the leadership of BOBBIE NCNEESE and her leadership team. NANCY ROBERSON, MARY CLARK and MEDIA LEE. These women are doing a great job and we are proud to have them serve the North Carolina Conference. The Missionettes program is a vital tool in ministering to our girls and as we focus on reaching others, we must not forget our young girls. If you do not currently have an active Girl's Ministries program in you local church, we challenge you to use this door of opportunity for ministry.

Happy Hearts are going strong. Under the leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD and assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY & MARGARET POTTER, these ladies are doing an excellent job in planning the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. This is evident in the excitement at each meeting and the growth that continues to take place. Thank you for your dedication to our senior adults.

A special thank you to our Couples Retreat Directors, CATHY WARD & CATHY ARTHUR. In September, they and their husbands did a wonderful job providing another great retreat. This retreat was held in the beautiful mountains of Gatlinburg, Tennessee with Rev. & Mrs. Garry Yeatt. The 2004 Retreat scheduled for October in Winston-Salem, NC is already planned and you don't want to miss it. Cathy & Cathy, thank you for all your hard work and dedication to this time of marriage enrichment for our couples.

The Past President Club chaired by DOLLIR DAVENPORT is a wonderful support group. Dollie, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON AND LINDA M. THOMAS are women that love the Lord and continue to lend their support. I truly admire each of them and appreciate their encouragement and their prayers. Thank you for allowing the Lord to continue to us you to minister to others.

NCWM Board Members, JANICE, MARJORIE, LOIS and TERRY continue to commit themselves to serve you any way they can. This has been evident in the long board meetings and planning sessions. They have willingly given themselves to serve the North Carolina Conference. Each one has their own individual unique gifts but collectively God put us together to use our gifts to build His Kingdom. I believe we are a great team. Words cannot express how much I appreciate each of you. Thank you for all you are doing.

NCWM District Directors are a blessing from the Lord. These ladies form the greatest network for reaching the local church that I have ever experienced. They want to serve the women of this conference. They are available to visit the local church. They are busy serving as registrars and helpers at Conference functions. They promote Women's Ministries on the local level by organizing rallies, leadership meetings and keeping in contact with local directors. A special thank you to WESTA BAREFOOT, BARBARA BISHOP, JOANN BLACKMON, KATHY DUSZYNSKI, ANNE WILLIS GURLEY, TERRI HODGE, ROSE HUBBARD, YVONNE JONES, DARNELL NELMS, GALE TAYLOR, and JACKI THOMPSON.

To our NCWM Historian, DOROTHY BOYETTE, we say "thank you" with a heart full of love. She is doing a wonderful job keeping the official records of the events of the North Carolina Women's Ministries. If you have not seen our scrapbooks, you should take a few minutes to visit these pages of history. Dorothy, we appreciate all your hard work and dedication.

I would like to say thank you to the RDC personnel and the NC Conference Board. We have some great folks working and supporting the ministries of the IPHC. I appreciate them more than they will ever know.

NC Conference Superintendent CHRIS THOMPSON continues to be very supportive to Women's Ministries and me. He is an encourager and has been very willing to meet and discuss the future of Women's Ministries. I appreciate his prayers and his vision for us. We appreciate our First Lady, BETTY, as she serves as our Minister's Wives Fellowship Conference Director. Thank you for all you are doing.

To my home church, Maranatha and my Pastor Richard Robinson and his wife, Joan, thank you for your prayers and support of this ministry. You enable me to follow the call that God has placed on my life.

Last but not least, I must say thank you to my husband, Henry. Without his love and continued support, I couldn't work and travel as much as I do. The Lord has blessed me with a wonderful husband and friend. God has given him a heart for others and he has enjoyed meeting each of you as well as helping me with all the projects that I'm constantly shuffling.

To each of you may I say thank you for all you do on the local level. Women's Ministries would not be what it is today without you. You are the instrument that God is using to meet the needs in you local church and community. Please know that the NCWM Board and I are here to serve you and I believe that in this New Year we are going to continue impacting the loves of others.

In His Love,

Patsy C. Deese

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

2004 NCWM MEMOIRS REPORT
In loving memory of NCWM Members who departed this life during 2003
By Linda M. Thomas

"Be thou faithful until death, and I will give thee a crown of life"
Rev. 2:10b

Precious in our memories are those who have gone before,
From the toils and trials of this life, to the Grand and Golden Shore.

They worked hard in the local churches and as members of WM;
But God called their names and invited them to go and live with Him.

Though we miss them in our presence, and we long to see each face,
We rejoice in knowing that one day we'll meet in a heavenly embrace.

So today we honor the lives they lived and the Christian race they have run;
They are precious in our memories, as we pause to reflect on each one:
